Learn How to Play

Get explanations on how to play the Board Game Mode.

Choose One

Choose one of the three explanations:

- "How to Use the Wii Remote"
- "Let's become President!"
- "Types of Spaces"

In "How to Use the Wii Remote," you play a mini-game. By the time you clear the game, you'll be a Wii Remote expert!

In "Let's become President!" we'll explain the basic rules of the Board Game Mode.

In "Types of Spaces" you get to roll the dice and actually move along the board as we explain the various types of board spaces one by one.

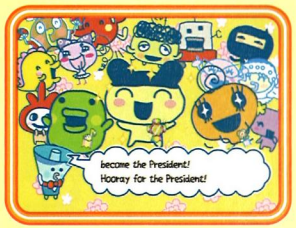
Vinnie's Lair

Game Rules

The object of the game is to collect Popularity Points and become the President. The player with the most Popularity Points at the end of a predetermined number of days is elected "President" of Tamagotchi Planet.

The player who has the most popularity points on Election Day, held once every seven days, gets a badge.

You can collect Popularity Points during mini-games or by getting to the Campaign Space and holding a Campaign Speech.



Popularity Points are important, but you need money for your campaign, too. The currency on Tamagotchi Planet is called "Gotchi." The more Gotchi you use, the quicker your Popularity Points will go up.

Raise those Popularity Points and use plenty of Gotchi, so you can be number one on Election Day and become the President!

Flow of the Game

The game starts in Tamagotchi Town.

Throughout the game, you'll be moving around to other towns, too, but Tamagotchi Town is at the center and connects all the other towns.

First of all, the location of the "Campaign Space" is determined.

If you land on the Campaign Space, there'll be a big meeting with all your supporters! You'll get lots of Popularity Points and some Gotchi.

When it's your turn, roll the dice and move along the board.

All kinds of events take place at the spaces you land on. Landing on a Mini-game Space or Gotchi Game Space is your chance to collect Popularity Points and Gotchi. Do your best in these games!

When all of the candidates have had a turn, that's the end of one day. Every seven days, there's an Election Day. Whichever candidate has the most Popularity Points on that day gets a badge.

Continue in this manner, going around to all the towns on Tamagotchi Planet, until the last Election Day is over. The candidate with the most Popularity Points at that time becomes the new "President" of Tamagotchi Planet.

Vinny's Lair

Read this part carefully!

Game Controls

Rolling the Dice

Press and hold the A Button and swing the Wii Remote to roll the dice. Move along the board the same number of spaces as the number of your roll.

When you have a choice of routes, use the +Control Pad to select the direction you want to go.

The route marked with the Crown Icon is the shortest path to the Campaign Space, your goal in the game.

When you're done moving, a message will appear that'll ask you "Stop on this space?" Select "Yes" to land there, or "No" if you want to go back and choose an alternative route.

Checking the Map

Below the icon of each town, the candidates that are currently in that town are shown.

Select the town you want to see and press the A Button. A map of the whole town will then appear.

Press the +Control Pad to look inside the town.

Checking the Election Diary

You can take a look at your Election Diary here. This notebook is packed with data about your current campaign situation. Simply select the data you want to look at.

For more information, see "Your Election Diary." (Page 22)

Checking Your Popularity

Move the Wii Remote up and down and the screen below will appear.

1. Current Ranking
2. Number of Badges
3. Popularity
4. Gotchi

Move the Wii Remote again to return to the previous screen.

What If I Land on Somebody Else's Space?

This is an important point!

If you land on a space that another candidate is already on, you get a chance to play the slot machine!

Press the A Button to stop the machine from spinning. Depending on the outcome, you might get to take Popularity Points or Gotchi away from the other candidate! Or you just might have to give him or her some of yours.

Vinny's Lair

There's still more to talk about!

Types of Board Spaces

Event Space

If you land on this space, some sort of event will occur. You never know what will happen until you land here! You might get more Popularity Points or Gotchi, or you might lose some.

Surprise Space

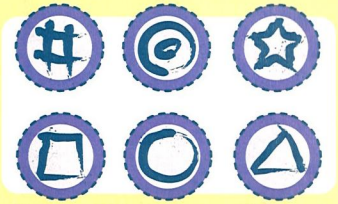
If you land on this space, something exciting will happen on the board. You might be carried off to a different space, or paths might change. Every town has different surprises!

Stamp Space

If you land on these spaces, you'll receive one stamp. Collect all the stamps and you'll get something good!

For more information, see "Stamps." (Page 23)

Password Space



If you land on these spaces, you'll receive one Password. If you get the three correct Passwords out of the total six, the Password Gate will open up!

For more information, see "Passwords." (Page 23)

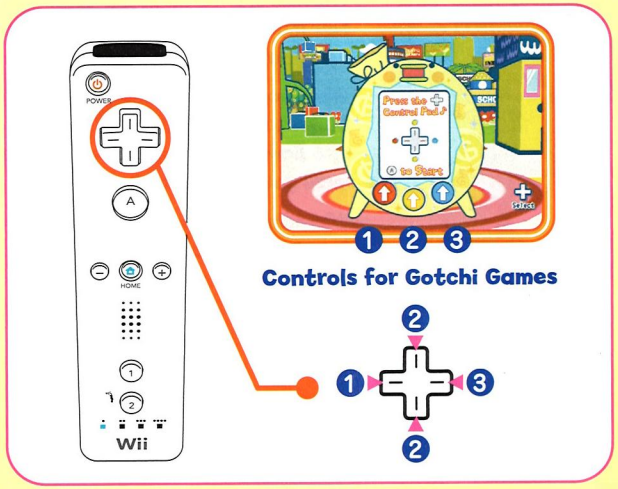
Gotchi Game Space

If you land on this space, a Gotchi Game will start. You never know which game it'll be until you land here!

You can play up to five rounds, as long as you keep winning.

The number at the top is how much time you have left. You have to clear the game before this number reaches zero or it'll be "game over"!

You get Gotchi when you win Gotchi Games.



Vinny's Lair

Good luck!

Mini-game Space

You can play a mini-game if you land on this space. You never know which game it'll be until you land here!

The more rounds you win the more Popularity Points you will recieve.

Q&A

Q. I can't get my Popularity Points up. What should I do?

A. First of all, you should try to get to the Campaign Space first. Then you should do things like decorate your headquarters. These are great ways to boost your Popularity Points in a flash!

Q. I don't seem to be very good at the mini-games...

A. When you move the Wii Remote, make sure you move it precisely in the appropriate direction.

And be aware that pointing at the TV screen sometimes doesn't work very well if you're too close or too far away from the Sensor Bar.

Q. How can I earn more Gotchi?

A. If you get to the Campaign Space, you will get many Gotchis. Also by playing Gotchi Games successfully, you can get Gotchi. So keep trying!
